

California's Low Income Household Water Assistance Program

California's Low Income Household Water Assistance Program (LIHWAP) provides one-time financial assistance to low-income households to pay current or past due water or sewer bills.

Financial Help is Available

Many low-income residents have received hundreds or even thousands of dollars in financial support to help pay their bills.

YOU ARE INCOME-QUALIFIED FOR LIHWAP IF...

- Your household income is below 60% of the state median income for California families.
- You are a recipient of CalFresh, CalWORKs or the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP).

A HOUSEHOLD OF FOUR WITH A MONTHLY INCOME OF
$5,192.75 OR LESS QUALIFIES
FOR LIHWAP.

For Renters:

IS YOUR WATER OR SEWER
BILL PART OF YOUR RENTAL
PAYMENT? QUALIFYING FOR LIHWAP IS STILL POSSIBLE.

Learn More and Apply

LIHWAP is administered by the California Department of Community Services and Development (CSD), which works with Local Service Providers to connect low-income households to the financial support they need.

TO APPLY:

- You will need a copy of your water or sewer bill, proof of monthly income for the entire household and a government-issued ID.
- You must apply through your Local Service Provider. Learn more and find your Local Service Provider: <https://www.csd.ca.gov/waterbill>.
